THE POLITICAL SITUATION

An Interesting Letter From Governor Johnson

The Direct Primary Law given us in 1909 contained a joker designed to continue and perpetuate in 1912 the power of the old Southern Pacific Machine. This provision was that the County Conventions which should be selected in 1910, should be called together again in 1912, and these County Conventions should select delegates to a State Convention, which in turn, should choose delegates to the National Convention.

Of course, at the time of the enactment of the law in 1909, the old Southern Pacific Political Machine looked forward confidently and complacently to the usual result in 1910 by which it would control most of the County Convention and the State Convention as well. The political revolution of 1910, however, upset the plans of those who had done our politics for us for so many years and the progressive wing of the Republican party, after its extraordinary victory in the Direct Primary of 1910, found itself in possession not only of the nominations but of the party control and the County Convention of the State.

By inheritance, therefore, that which was meant to perpetuate the old machine came to the progressive wing of the Republican Party, and today, the progressive wing of the Republican Party has control of the machinery of the party in the state and of a great majority of the County Conventions of the State.

The law was permitted by the last Legislature to remain as the machine had given it to us, because it was known that a special session of the Legislature was to be called. The political situation in the state of California is just this:

The progressives of the Republican Party are in control of that party's machinery and they can, by simply obeying the law which was enacted by their opponents, send a solid delegation to the Republican Convention for Senator Robert M. La Follette.

The question presented is whether the progressive Republicans of the State with this power, given by a machine law, which by poetic justice bores the old machine with its own petard, should take affirmative action and should enact another and a definite law which would yield the advantage they possess. Of course, it is the reactionaries in California held the advantage that the progressive now hold, they would simply laugh derisively at any request for a Presidential Preference Primary. In every state in the union where the reactionaries are in control, and the people are demanding a Direct Primary for president, the reactionaries stolidly and definitely deny this primary. The only states in the union where a Presidential Preference Primary is accorded are in progressive states where progressives control. That a Presidential Preference is just, nobody can deny, but this is justice always to be loosed, ever to be observed by the progressives, and never by the reactionaries? Is the reactionary ever to retain what political advantages technically or otherwise he may possess, refusing every right of the progressive, while the progressive on the other hand must always yield his every advantage, even those legally wrung from the machine, and grant every just demand made by a reactionary or any other person or party? This is just the situation presented in California, and notwithstanding I resent the injustice to our brethren in other states, and notwithstanding I rebel at the idea that any injustice may be done by the old Party Machine which will never be resented by any member of that machine or any part of its press, still the obligation rests upon those who are doing politics in the fashion that we are, always to be just, and no matter what the consequences may be, and regardless of possibilities the future may have in store for us, to follow absolutely the straight path of principle. Progressives can act poitically and govern only within certain limitations; unfortunately our opponents can act politically and govern without limitation, and they may do this without fear of losing a single hide-bound adherent. We are compelled by the very nature of the things we are striving for ever to heed any call for justice, whether it emanates from a hypocritical machine that never would do justice, or whether it emanates from a real desire for the right, and so it is that while the power is today absolutely in the hands of the progressives of the State of California and while they can, send to the National Republican Convention a solid delegation for Senator La Follette, yet the progressive Republicans of the state are big enough to be just, and believing it is but just that every elector in the state in 1912 shall have the opportunity to express his preference for president, and that every woman, admitted now to the same rights politically as men, should have that right too, the progressive Republicans yield the advantage that was appropriated by the machine and wrestled from the machine by a great political revolution, and will submit to the people a primary for the expression of Presidential Preference.

This is done too in the face of what has been repeatedly pointed out as a fictitious quantity that may be injected into the campaign next year in the city of San Francisco and its adjacent territory. It has been insisted by many that designing politicians and designing newspapers will endeavor to take into politics the Panama-Pacific Exposition and to use that Exposition and its fair frame and the deep affection in which it is held by the people of San Francisco in behalf of the present executive of the nation and it is insisted that this false quantity which a certain portion of the press and designing politicians may inject into the campaign may deceive a sufficient number of good people in San Francisco to change the result. Even were we to know that this would happen, nevertheless we would still insist upon a Presidential Preference Primary. But I will not for one moment concede that any man connected with the Panama-Pacific Exposition or any newspaper connected with the city of San Francisco can so far forget the proprieties and the best interest of the Exposition, as to inject the Exposition into a political contest, even though the contest be for president of the United States. I believe that should this attempt be made in San Francisco it will be rebuked not only by the rest of the state, but that those who are interested in its welfare will without division voice an emphatic and indignant disapproval.

HIRAM W. JOHNSON.

Argue Dr. Burke Case

Presiding Justice N. Chipman and Associate Justice Albert G. Burnett and E. C. Hart, the bench of the Third District Appellate Court, sat en banc at Sacramento on Monday and heard arguments in the appeal case from Sonoma County of the People of the State of California against Willard P. Burke, the convicted former Sanitarium head under sentence for the dynamiting of the tenthouse occupied by Lu Smith and her child on the Sanitarium grounds.

Dr. Burke's counsel are seeking to prevent his going to prison, and hope to get a new trial for their client.

Former Judge James A. Cooper and Attorney William F. Cowan presented arguments in behalf of the appellant, Dr. Burke, to which District Attorney Clarence F. Lea and Assistant District Attorney George W. Hoyle replied.

The decision of the Court is awaited with considerable interest not only in this county and state, where Dr. Burke is well known and where he had a very large number of friends, but is a matter of interest all over the country, for it was one of the big cases of the decade in the United States, and was so reported in the newspapers of the country.

Monday night's Sacramento Bee has this notice of the hearing:

"The appeal of Dr. W. P. Burke of Burke Sanitarium, convicted on a charge of dynamiting the tent which Miss Lu Smith was occupying on February 5, 1910, as a patient, is a sanitarium, near Santa Rosa, was up before the Third District Court of Appeal for argument. Burke appealed from the judgment, sentencing him to ten years in San Quentin State Prison, by a technical attack on the indictment, and charging that the District Attorney and his assistant had been guilty during the trial of improper conduct prejudicial to the defendant.

"The morning session of the Court was taken up by arguments made by Judge Cooper, counsel for Burke. Cooper made one of the most eloquent addresses ever heard before the District Court. Attorney W. F. Cowan also appeared for Dr. Burke, and Charles Jones, of the Attorney General's office, appeared for the State. District Attorney Lea of Sonoma County and Assistant Hoyle are expected to appear during the afternoon session, opposing the appeal from the judgment.

Burke, according to the decision of the jury which tried him, placed a quantity of dynamite beneath the cot occupied by the Smith woman and lighted the fuse, exploding it. His alleged object was to get rid of her because of his previous intimate relation with her. She declared he was the father of her baby."—Press Democrat.

Johnson Issues Call

Governor Hiram W. Johnson has issued his call for the extra session of the twenty-seventh legislature, twenty-six subjects for the legislative action. The presidential primary heads the list. In a statement he says:

"The legislature provides laws whereby people may express preference for president and by direct vote select delegates to the national conventions."

Suffrage, initiative, referendum and recall are other subjects included in the call.

Insurance Reduced

The Citizens' Water Committee reported last Monday that arrangements are practically completed now, whereby that certain district of town which is protected by the Lewis Water System, will receive a reduction of insurance. The extra hose and cart demanded by the Board of Fire Underwriters for a reduction in insurance will be here in a few days. Thanks to some of you citizens, who has made it possible for the city to acquire same at once.

Report Progress

Last Tuesday the directors of the Good Roads Committee held a meeting in the Sonoma Valley Bank Building. It is reported that the several committees have met with success and much encouragement, and work on the roads will commence at once under the supervision of Jos. Dowdall. Some criticism has been cast on the movement for good roads, as it was considered a political fight. Such, however, is not the case. Our citizens have responded nobly to the general demand that our highways be put in as good condition in this county and district as they are elsewhere, even though our tax appropriation be insufficient. A list of donations of money and teams will be published next week.

Thrown From a Buggy

While driving along Napa Street yesterday Mrs. Debats of El Verano was injured. The shaft on the rig broke and fell down, and in the excitement the rig turned turtle throwing the occupants, Mrs. Walter Poulson, Mrs. Crane, Miss Amile Vincent and Mrs. Debats out.

Mrs. Poulson and Mrs. Crane were hurt for some distance, but escaped without serious injury.

Mrs. Debats was thrown some distance into the ditch and sustained several injuries, the most serious of which was a severe cut on the cheek.

She was taken to the Leix hospital and several stitches were taken in the same.

The horse stopped of its own accord and quietly grazed along the roadside until caught.

Has a Local Touch

The second trial of Dr. Bennett Clark Hyde for the murder of Colonel Thos. Swope at Independence, Mo., has much interest to a number of Santa Rosans owing to the fact that Mrs. Swope is a distant relative of a Santa Rosan. The grandmother of Geo. A. Hocker, the well known real estate dealer, and Mrs. Swope were sister. Mr. Hocker's sister, Mrs. Bettie Winn is naturally a partisan to the Swope theory that the Colonel was poisoned by Dr. Hyde, and in letters to her brother declares that he is a "bad man."—Press Democrat. Geo. A. Hocker is the father of W. O. Hocker, principal of the Glen Ellen school.

CHRISTMAS PRIZES

Valuable Premiums to be Given Away by the Expositor.

The contest is now in full blast and about 20 workers are scouring the valley for subscribers, and are finding it easy work to get them as it is really a proposition of collecting for us.

Up Glen Ellen way the activities are the greatest and are the contest closes that little burg will have been whipped dry, and everyone will be reading the Expositor.

In other parts of the valley our workers are doing well.

It isn't too late to begin work and you have ample time to earn a valuable present.

In El Verano, Shellville, Sonoma and Vineburg the field is not quite covered by workers and we would like others in those sections to work for premiums.

Remember, this isn't a case of many working and one getting a prize, for each and everyone will receive their quota even though they get only one subscriber.

The contest will now run until January 15th 1912 and all you have to do is to send your name and we will mail you a book of receipts.

Then you can get busy and you will be surprised by the results.

The following is a partial list of the premiums we will give away:

For ten subscribers we give you a 30-pi ce flowered dinner set, valued at $10.00.

For twenty subscribers we will give you a nickel gasoline student lamp, valued at $15.00.

For 40 subscribers we will give you a solid copper coffee urn, value $20.00, or solid copper chafing dish, or a one hundred piece dinner set, value $30.00.

Thanksgiving

It is good to love and live
It is sweet to aid and give
It is joy to comfort those who doubt and grieve—

Criminal Cases Set for Trial

In Judge Emmet Seawell's court room, which is the criminal department of the Superior Court, three cases were heard on Monday.

Timothy J. Kavanaugh, charged with having disposed of property which did not belong to him, entered a plea of not guilty. The man's trial was set for January 18, 1912. The property which Kavanaugh pretended to sell is located near Cazadero.

Benjamin Roberts, accused of having murdered his brother, Charles Roberts, had his trial set for December 27. The homicide occurred at Trenton some weeks ago.

Augustine Olivero and Ghio Mangel, charged with maintaining a set net, had the cases against them continued until next Monday, November 27.

Powder Demonstration

Next Wednesday, November 29, at 10 a. m. the Dupont Powder people will have a man demonstrating to the farmers of this valley how to use powder for breaking up hard pan and other shallow soils for the purpose of planting trees, vines, alfalfa and other crops. The demonstration will take place at the C. Spindler farm near El Verano, and everybody at all interested is invited to be present.

Incubation Success

Some wonderful discoveries have been recently made in this field, the most important being a new regulator for automatically controlling Heat, Moisture and Ventilation.

The Geo. H. Lee Company of 225 West 2nd St., Los Angeles, Cal., has just published a new incubator book that covers all the new ideas fully, and which will be sent free to any person interested on request.

Suit Against the Brewery Northern California

Cadet Notes

Joseph Keechler began an action on a promissory note Monday afternoon against John Steiner, the Sonoma Brewing Company, a corporation, and a number of others. The suit is based on a promissory note dated at Sonoma on June 9, 1910.

Among the other defendants are H. H. Granice, Chas. Dal Poggetto, P. Nichelini, A. Beretta, John Steiner, Frederick Leix, Auguste Rouquie, James Felder, A. Froment, James Maffi, John Batto, Fred Batto, John Batto & Sons, a corporation; N. J. Heggie, Giuseppe Pretti and the Wittemann Company, a corporation.

Attorney Robert A. Poppe represents the plaintiff in the suit. A short time ago John Steiner began an action against the brewing company.

File Articles on Wednesday

The California Telephone and Light Company filed its articles of incorporation with County Clerk William W. Felt, Jr., on Wednesday. The company will own, operate and control telephone and telegraph lines and electric light and power lines, and will do a multitude of businesses connected with these lines.

The incorporators and directors are John E. Bennett of Palo Alto, F. L. Wright of Santa Rosa, A. H. Spurr and M. S. Sayre of Lakeport, W. P. Ferguson and Stanley Pickering of Santa Rosa, and H. L. Nay of Kellogg.

The corporation is capitalized at ten million dollars, which is divided into one hundred thousand shares, at $100 per share. Each of the incorporators has subscribed for one share of the stock.

The electric light business of Sonoma Valley will be under the control of this company.

Wouldn't it?

Say, wouldn't it make you mad if you had got up early in the morning and carefully cleaned your gun, bought about fifteen boxes of cartridges, carefully placed your hunting license in your inside pocket, borrowed a friend's horse, cart and dog and went to the hills to shoot quail, and after hunting all day and not even get a chance to shoot a ground squirrel, and as you came home all tired and disgusted with nearly everything, quail shooting in particular, you see a flock of doves fly over your head and just for luck you took a pop shot at them, killing two, and they fell over in a field fenced with barbed wire and you tore a brand new hunting suit trying to retrieve the birds, and when you got home to find the owner of the doves waiting for you and be compelled to pony up a big round dollar for each bird, and be threatened with arrest for shooting from the highway. Now wouldn't it make you just mad? Such an experience was the cause of the disappearance of the usually sunny smile from the countenance of a couple of local sports last week.

Y. M. I. Ball

One of the grandest ball of the season will be given by the Y. M. I. on Thanksgiving evening, November 29.

After the ball a grand turkey supper will be enjoyed by those who attend.

The Y. M. I. have been known to always give a good time, and this will be the greatest of them all.

The Paul Johnson Orchestra will furnish the music. Come! Come!

No Services Sunday

There will be no services Sunday morning next or evening at the Congregational church owing to the absence of the pastor who has been called away on account of the serious illness of his brother-in-law, Joseph Hausen, of Ferndale. Sunday school and Christian Endeavor will be held at the usual hour.

A Lady's Diamond Ring to Be Given Away at the Don Theatre

With each and every ticket sold the purchaser will receive a vote. The votes are counted every Wednesday and Saturday and placed on a board in Simmons' window. Contest ends Saturday, December 23, at 6 p. m.

The basket ball game played last Saturday night between the Cadets and Sebastopol was one of interest and excitement from the start to the finish. The Cadets scored the first two points and wound up the half with a leading score of 11 to 7. The final score was a close one, being 18 to 20 in favor of Sebastopol High. The Sebastopol boys were much larger than the Cadets, but we'll get them next time.

Saturday night, (tomorrow) there will be another big game between the Cadets and the Company E. N. G. C. of Santa Rosa. This is a return game and will be hotly contested. Don't forget to come and root. The game starts at 8:30 sharp. After the game there will be a dance. Don't forget the date, tomorrow night.

At our last meeting three new members were admitted to the Cadets, two of them will be a great help to the basket ball team, while the other will help the band.

Last Tuesday night the boys played their first match.

Two auto loads of Cadets and town boys went to Santa Rosa Sunday to root for Sonoma's crack twirler.

Capt. Roberts left Thursday for Ferndale to visit his brother-in-law, who has been stricken down with blood poison. He will probably be gone a week or two.

Woman's Club Notes

The special feature at the Woman's Club last Saturday was a paper read by Mrs. Burlingame but by request prepared by Dr. Platon Vallejo.

giving a sketch of the early days of Sonoma, and also a number of reminiscences of his own childhood days, the central figure being always that of his illustrious father, General M. G. Vallejo.

The paper being not only keenly interesting but also of much future value to the historian, it was decided to ask Dr. Vallejo's permission to have two copies made, one of which shall be placed in the Sonoma library and the other with the History and Landmarks Committee of the State Federation of Woman's Clubs.

The music of the afternoon was extremely enjoyable,—some songs by Miss Stoten and two duets by Misses Amelia Cuicci and Mary Pinelli.

Tea and cakes were served by the afternoon's hostess, Miss Katie McDonnell.

The members of the club are urged to be present next Friday as the very important matter of purchasing a lot is coming up for decision. Another feature of interest will be the reports by Mrs. Robert P. Hill of the District Federation meeting at San Mateo, a gathering of unusual significance; and also of the Rural Education Conference at Davis, which she likewise attended. Both of these reports will be full of important and timely suggestions. The meeting will begin sharp at 2:30 o'clock.

P. F. Dodo, who has been an efficient foreman for the past 6 years on the California Wine Assn. Vineyards here, formerly known as the Hearst ranch, has been granted a leave of absence. Mr. Dodo has not been well since an attack of pneumonia last summer, and will therefore leave for a change of climate. His friends hope to see him return soon.

The Poultry show which opens at Petaluma on December 7 promises to be one of the most interesting exhibitions that has ever been held in that section of the state. This year the exhibit will be confined to poultry alone, and pigeons and their allied species that heretofore have been shown in what was termed a "full show" will be excluded.

Concrete foundations are being put under the adobe walls of the old mission, De Solano, and other preparatory work of the restoration of the historic building. The workmen are taking advantage of the fine weather and hope to have it in condition so that work can continue even after the winter rains set in.

Monday Mayor M. E. Cummings, Trustees Wagon Chas. Dal Poggetto and L. Quartaroli visited Alameda to inspect the fine street work done in that city. They gathered considerable information of how streets and roadways should be built and Sonoma will profit thereby.

Judge W. H. Waste, of Oakland, will address the Men's League on Sunday evening, December 3, at the Congregational church. The subject will be "Are the Teachings of Jesus Adopted to the Present Conditions." Everybody is cordially invited to hear this noted speaker.

Notes From Shellville

Chicken Colony

Messrs. Benker have received a large shipment of laying hens of the Leghorn breed and they are beauties.

The "gobble" turkey is being distributed for his usual fate on Thanksgiving day. We hear his note in various places.

Dr. and Mrs. Nourse and Mr. and Mrs. Johns made a combined business and shopping trip to Sonoma Tuesday.

These bright days are a boom to the colony—giving them time to complete their many buildings. Two more houses were begun this week.

A meeting of the residents was called Thursday night in the Co's. office to consider the organization of an improvement society for the colony.

The Colony Co. will soon begin the erection of an incubator house of 42000 egg capacity. Also a large mercantile building will be put up in the near future.

By the earnest persuasion of the company and friends of Dr. Nourse he has reconsidered his decision, and will remain on the colony, much to the gratification of all.

Wide and deep ditches are being dug along each street to insure thorough drainage the coming winter. The grading and street work is being done under the supervision of Surveyor Lewis, of Buena Vista, who is proving a skilled workman.

Mr. H. H. Lingo has just returned from Oakland with a flock of prize fowls of the Rock variety. He also has in partnership with A. J. Sharpe, our chicken expert, a fine lot of white Orpingtons of Kellerstrass strain.
